EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF TEMPERANCE WORKERS

First Step Toward Fight Against Re-Opening of Saloon Taken Sunday Night

In anticipation of the filing of petitions asking a local option election in Lincoln county within the next few months, the pastors of the four churches of the city at their Sunday morning services called a mass meeting at the courthouse for Sunday night for the purpose of discussing the situation. The temperance rally was well attended by both men and women notwithstanding the inclement weather and much enthusiasm was manifested by those who will lead the fight against the re-establishment of the saloon in the county.

Strong arguments, calling upon the Christian people of the city and county to rally in this fight were made by the four pastors, and then Rev. J. J. Diekey acting as chairman called upon a number of prominent citizens in the audience for their views of the situation. All pledged enthusiastic support in the fight and many seemed inclined to accept the plan made on some parts that a high licensed saloon would prove a remedy for the present evils of blind tigers, bootleggers, etc. J. H. Baughman, A. C. McClary, Clarence E. Tate, P. M. McRoberts, J. C. Florence made short and enthusiastic talks for temperance. Cornelius J. Allen declared that being in a minority on the question in the City Council, he was unable to accomplish much toward putting the blind tigers out of business. He said that if given his way he would not only leave the blind tigers exterminated but would refuse license to the soft drink stands, two of which now operate in the city. His remarks were vigorously applauded. S. M. Sanfley said that if the temperance leaders would not quit work after a local option victory had been won but see to it that officials were elected who were pledged to enforce the laws and would enforce them, the present condition of blind tigers all over the county would not exist and no one would be suggesting the saloons as a remedy.

It is said to be the plan of the temperance leaders to ask every candidate who shall offer for office both in the city and county just where he stands on this question. Those who shall seek election to the county in November will be asked to state what they will do about the matter and be placed on record before the people where they stand on this issue.

Contrary to expectation, the petitions asking for a local option election were not filed on the county court day. Those securing the names have until 60 days for filing before a day designated for the election, but the election must be called on a regular county court day. An injustice was done Joe Fortman in the last issue of the paper when it was stated that he was circulating one of the petitions for an election. Mr. Fortman states that he is not doing so, so that this correction is gladly made.

Reports are from those who seem to know, that the wets are having some little trouble in securing money to finance their campaign. A number of the large liquor dealers who have heretofore been glad to contribute toward such an election fund, are said to have refused to "come across" at this time, on account of the fact that they are very well satisfied with conditions as they exist in Lincoln at present. They are said to be selling more liquor in the county now than was ever sold under saloons and on L. & N. representative here is quoted as saying that more whisky is being shipped into Stanford right now than was ever shipped in for saloons.

On the other hand, a number of the prominent temperance leaders present at the meeting Sunday night pledged both their time and money to fight for their cause, so that they go into the campaign enthusiastic and confident of victory.

A rousing temperance meeting was also held at Hustonville Sunday night in which great enthusiasm was manifested and the West End was pledged to enter vigorously into the fight against the open saloon.

WORK STARTS ON DEPOT.

The L. & N. construction crew consisting of 15 men came to town Saturday last and work was immediately started on Stanford's new depot. The west wing of the old depot was torn down, but the remainder of the old building will be left standing until the new station is nearly complete for the latter will be placed exactly in the center of the railroad's lot so that the old depot will not interfere with construction work.

POLITICAL SPEAKINGS HERE COURT DAY.

McDermott and Morrow Both Address Good Crowds of Democrats and Republicans.

The political campaign in Lincoln was formally opened in Stanford Monday afternoon when Hon. Edward J. McDermott, democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, spoke at the courthouse on behalf of the democratic ticket, while at the same time, Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, nephew of Senator Bradley was speaking in the opera house on behalf of the republican ticket. Both speakers had good crowds and were listened to with close attention. Mr. Morrow was introduced by County Chairman R. L. Davison, who made a vigorous plea for republican harmony at the same time paying his respects in no uncertain terms to the "fily whites" who had bolted the republican convention here. Mr. Morrow is a very plausible speaker and has a reputation as a "riddle rouser" and kept his audience a large percent of which was colored, tending good at all stages.

No more representative audience ever gathered to hear any political speaker in this county than was assembled in the court house to hear Mr. McDermott. Men came from Boyle, Garrard and Rockcastle to hear him and when he began almost every seat in the courtroom was taken. He was introduced by Hon. W. H. Shanks, democratic nominee for representative in this county, who declared that never in his life had he voted the democratic ticket with more sincere pleasure than he did this time, and never before had it presented a higher class of candidates to the people.

Mr. McDermott is a scholarly speaker and discussed the issues of the campaign not in heat or passion but with plain argument and cold logic which appeals to thinking men. He showed how completely Judge O'Leary's hands were tied were he elected, for the legislature is certain to be democratic on account of the democratic hold-over senators. He pointed out that the democratic legislature will certainly not feel bound to nor willing to support a republican governor or carrying out his platform pledges, so that the only hope for those who desire progressive legislation in Kentucky, and desire to have good accomplished for the commonwealth is to vote the democratic ticket. He convincingly argued that on all important features, the democratic platform is much stronger and more emphatic than the republican; while the people of the whole state and country have complete confidence in McDermott and will follow him to victory.

Mr. McDermott left on the 5:10 train for Louisville. At the conclusion of his speech he was introduced to hundreds of democrats and was made glad to hear of the splendid prospects for democracy in this part of the state. He declares that McDermott and whole ticket is sure to win, for he has the confidence of his people and they are tired and disgusted with the mismanagement and extravagance of the present republican administration in the state's affairs.

Plans are being made for a big democratic rally county court day next October, when Hon. John S. Rhea or some other prominent democrat will be present.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Sherriff Weddle, of Pulaski county was here Tuesday summoning jurors to go to Somerset to try the Helton case, the terrible murder case at Hustonville of a few months ago. There was some talk of dodging in town when the officer's purpose was learned.

Misses Lucile and Clara Cooper left for New York this week to take up their work again in the school for the Deaf.

Miss Essie Burch, has gone to Lewisburg, W. Va., where she will have a nice position in the college this winter. Miss Mary Burch has returned to Staunton, Va.

Miss Josephine Warren left this week for Talladega, Ala., where she will teach in the school for the deaf this term.

Miss Ina Martin of Sharpburg, is the guest of Miss Jennie Pepples. Lost—Kappa Sigma fraternity pin, star in a crescent, set in pearls and emeralds, reward for return to this office. 72-2

The Jumbo Camp Meeting will be continued over next Sunday. Large crowds have been in attendance, quite a number going over from Stanford Sunday. Revs. Wolridge and McGowan are preaching at their best and great conviction is falling on the people. Come praying that God will give us the greatest meeting that old Jumbo Camp has ever had.

SANATORIUM AT CRAB ORCHARD CHANGES HANDS.

We are informed that on September 4th the Crab Orchard Sanatorium changed hands, the new firm being now composed of J. L. & W. E. Spittler. The former owner, J. L. Spittler will be exclusive manager and patrons in the future are assured of courteous treatment as was common before the forming of the late company in February.

The management wishes to inform the public that they have retained their former resident, Dr. H. R. Spittler to look after those who are in need of drugless treatment. The management has also retained W. J. Edmiston as Physician-in-Chief thus assuring to patients the co-operation of those two, each skilled in his own line of work, will work for his best interest and that the high standard of work will remain where they have been able to maintain it in the past. The treatment as in the past will be strictly of a drugless character, including Spinal Adjustment for which this institution has become far famed.

The management also wishes to inform the public that owing to a confusion of names the new management has been fit to re-christen the Sanatorium, and in the future it will be known as the Spittler Sanatorium, Na-Life Hill, near Crab Orchard, Ky. Remember the new name in addressing your correspondence also bear in mind that "a rose by any other name would still be a rose."

McKINNEY.

Dr. T. H. Singleton and wife left last Friday for an extended trip south. They will visit several places of interest while away including and Dickson, Tenn. Returning they will come back by the way of Bowling Green where they will visit Dr. Singleton's brother Dr. L. G. Singleton, a rising dentist, of that place. They will be gone about 15 days.

A wedding of quite a little romance was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. J. J. Diekey at Stanford on last Thursday afternoon, the contracting parties being Miss Tony Fletcher, of Science Hill and Mr. W. Hicks of Paducah, Ky. Miss Fletcher is a music teacher and has been teaching a class for several weeks here, while Mr. Hicks is also a music instructor and has been teaching our band boys for several days. Miss Fletcher is a very popular young lady and has a host of friends here and in her home town. Mr. Hicks comes to us highly recommended as a man of sterling qualities and is to be congratulated on winning such a young lady as Miss Fletcher for a help mate through life. Their many friends extend to them congratulations and all good wishes for a long and happy life. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks will remain in town for a few days and then they will leave for Mr. Hicks' home in Paducah.

What is the matter with the Christian people of the town and community that they do not attend the Wednesday night Prayer meeting at the Baptist church? The crowds are small and very little interest is being shown in these meetings. There are enough Christian people in this town to fill the house every Wednesday night and why they are not there we can't see, unless it is through indifference. Why not all the good people of the town go to these meetings and make them interesting and helpful to the town?

What ever you do, don't miss the big Band Concert and Box Supper on the lawn of R. H. Metcalf, on next Saturday night September 16th. Mr. Hicks, the band instructor, has a very interesting program arranged for the occasion and a good time for everyone who comes. This concert will be given by the band boys and every one should make an effort to come and help the boys to make this a success.

Mr. J. S. Murphy attended the Monticello fair last week and says the fair was good and lots of good stock were shown.

The Literary Society met last Friday night and elected new officers for the term. Those elected were Mr. Metcalf, President; Prof. Johnson as vice president; and J. S. Murphy as Secretary. The society has started out with a good attendance and we hope the people will all take a part in it and make it a success. Our band boys went over and furnished the music for them. The society will meet on next Friday night at the school house.

NEW LAUNDRY.

After having tried for some time we have succeeded in securing the agency for the M. & N. Laundry of Lexington, Ky., one of the finest in the State. All patronage will be accepted. Wilkinson and Carter.

By an oversight the announcement for the Bach Club recital was omitted in Friday's paper consequently the entertainment has been postponed until this evening.

EXTRA DAY REQUIRED FOR BAUGHMAN'S SALE.

Almost 300 Head of Cattle, Horses and Mules. Sold For Near $100,000.

The biggest sales held in this part of Kentucky in many years were conducted last week by the J. H. Baughman Live Stock Company, of this city. The sales were scheduled to cover two days, Wednesday and Thursday, but so great was the crowd of buyers and so many were the offerings that a third day was necessary to dispose of all the stock put up, and the sale was not concluded until late Friday. Altogether almost 300 head of cattle and mules were sold under the hammer by Auctioneers T. D. English and I. M. Rann, of Danville, and a total of almost $100,000 was realized from the three days' sales. Buyers were here from all over Kentucky, Tennessee, and far down in Georgia and the bidding was brisk at all times. The rains of the past two weeks have worked wonders for the grass in this part of Kentucky and every farmer seemed anxious to secure stock to feed during the winter. The last day's sales were as follows:

CHAMP CLARK TO SPEAK HERE OCTOBER 23.

Dates For Lyceum Club's Five Entertainments in Stanford are Announced.

The Redpath Bureau has notified the Stanford Lyceum Club of the dates of the five splendid attractions of the course which will be presented here at the opera house this winter. The dates assigned are as follows:

Champ Clark, October 23.
Mendelssohn Quartet, Nov. 10.
Reno, the Magicinn, Nov. 24
Musical Four, Jan. 6.
Orchestral Entertainers, Feb. 29.
These are four as high class entertainments as can be found upon any lyceum course and will undoubtedly meet with the appreciation they serve from the people of Stanford. Each number is of the highest class and the program is so diversified that a pleasing variety of entertainments is secured.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives and of the Democrats prominently mentioned as a presidential candidate will be the first number, and his lecture alone will be worth the price of the season tickets. The whole lyceum course is endorsed by the ministers of Stanford, and everyone who appreciates a high class list of attractions of the character secured.

The season tickets have been arranged so that those who buy them may secure, and reserve in advance their seats for the whole course, selecting the seats desired at the time of purchase and having them marked for the whole course. The prices fixed are considered very reasonable, being $2.50 for seats within the first eight rows of the house, and $2 for seats back of these. This makes an average of 50 and 50 cents per attraction for the series, a very low price, taking into consideration the quality of the attractions. Members of the Lyceum Club will be glad to list those who desire season tickets. Those who come first will be able to secure the choicest reservation of seats for the course, as the seats will be assigned in the order that the tickets are sold. It will be a case of first come first served. Tickets may be secured from Welch Rochester, Hays Foster, Prof. J. W. Ireland or S. M. Smiley.

The J. H. Baughman Live Stock Company's three days' sale was a big thing for Stanford and Lincoln county in every sense of the word. Everybody hopes the promoters made barrels of money. They brought big crowds to town, and gave material assistance in putting Stanford on the map as the horse and cattle center for this part of the state. Two more enterprising, energetic and progressive business men can not be found in any community and Lincoln county is glad to claim them for her own.

W. E. Bidwell, secretary of the state Racing Commission, and appointed by Gov. Willson, has disappeared leaving a shortage of $1,200 in his accounts. "Bid" was the newspaper reporter who published such glowing reports of Willson during his campaign for Governor. From what the people learned of Willson afterwards, it seems that "Bid" shortchanged the people before he got a chance at the funds of the racing commission.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Our graded and high school opened September 4th with 150 pupils enrolled. Dr. George B. Lyne read the 23rd Psalm and led in prayer. Mr. Clarence Woods, of Richmond, made a fine talk to the school teachers, pupils parents and trustees.

The county school graduates who received their diplomas can enter the high school here, without paying any tuition. We are indeed proud of our school, with Prof. Everett of Bowling Green, as principal. He is a fine young man with clean morals and best of all a Christian man.

Miss Eva Taylor, of Somerset is again welcomed in our midst. She has charge of the sixth and seventh grades. Miss Sallie McWhorter, one of our excellent young ladies has the fourth and fifth grades. Miss Collins, of Bowling Green has charge of the primary and music departments. Parents should not miss the golden opportunities that extends to their children, in music as well as other educational lines. Let each parent strive to help the teachers in their efforts, for they ever need our help and encouragement.

Miss Myers, of Alabama and Mrs. Cass, of Broadhead were the welcome guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Collier last week.

May and Stella Campbell accompanied by their father went to Cincinnati last week. They will enter school at Berea next week.

We are glad work has begun on concrete pavements. Our streets certainly need working on. Winter rains coming on makes it hard walking, especially for school children.

Miss Anna Thompson spent a few days with Miss Myrtle Murray.

The Lincoln county bible school convention which the writer had the pleasure of attending was a credit to Crab Orchard. We are sorry more of the men did not attend this meeting they missed some important statements. The state worker, Bro. Frazie certainly knows his work and does it well. Mr. Montgomery showed us plainly how we should make the most of time. Many of us fail to see the opportunities presented to us. Mrs. McRobert knows how to handle the little folks of her class. It is very necessary to know how to keep and interest them after we win them. Miss Pauline Hocker is a fine speaker. She gave a fine description of the international Sunday school convention.

We need more young ladies and young men like her. She will some day have many stars in her crown for earnestness and zeal for her Saviour, may she ever be true and faithful to the cause. Bro. D. M. Walker showed us plainly the needs of Missionary spirit in the Sunday school. Also he and Mr. Woods gave an enthusiastic talk on the liquor question. Oh, that every child of God would fight the liquor question with all the might and power, let us get united on this great question, before it gets a strong hold on our boys and girls and young folks. The convention meets at Stanford next year.

Miss Jessie Reynolds had a pleasant surprise, Friday evening a few young folks called on her. The following were present: Misses Nancy and Kate Napier, Melsadie Chadwick, Sadie Collier, Birdie Perkins, and Miss Pattie Perkins, of Mt. Vernon, Messrs. Frank Holman, Everett Spitzer, Albert Tiltrey, Joe Napier, Charlie Moore, and Clifford Collier, Miss Bessie knows how to entertain her friends, even if they should surprise her.

PREACHERSVILLE

The residence of Grant Hammonds a farmer living two miles East on the Chanaan turnpike, was consumed near midnight of last Sunday, by fire. None of the family were at home at the time and it is not known how the fire originated. Mr. Hammonds, who was returning from Crab Orchard first saw the fire and gave the alarm. Some featherbeds were the only things saved. The loss is about $3,500 partly covered by $1,500 insurance.

Mrs. Charity King, aged about 51 years, died at Norman, Okla., after an illness of months from tuberculosis. Deceased is survived by her husband, Mr. O. W. King and one son, Mr. Carlo B. King. Mrs. King was a kind Christian lady, well liked by all who knew her. She was a strict member of the Christian church. Her remains were laid to rest in a cemetery, there, Mrs. King had a host of friends in Lincoln who will mourn her death. Her maiden name was Pursifull.

J. J. Smith and H. C. Jones, of Broadhead, were at J. M. Cross' John Rigby fell on his porch and broke a rib, but has gotten about well.

David Adams, and family of Stanford, visited J. W. Brown.

The meeting at Watt's Chappell, conducted by Revs. W. W. Brock and L. D. Gooch is progressing finely with 15 additions to date.

Messrs. J. J. Smith and Wm. Hy-singer are two of Rockcastle's citizens who are good patrons of their county fair, having attended every day since its first exhibition sixteen years ago. That's "going some"

The members of the Bach Club have decided to give their recital in the Graded School chapel on Tuesday evening September 12th at 8 o'clock. This night was finally agreed upon because it did not interfere with any religious service or entertainments of any kind. It is a policy of the school not to have their exercises interfere with any other work and also to avoid having anything interfere or conflict with regular school duties, but this is a postponed meeting and it was deemed best to have it at this time. It is to be hoped that this recital will be well patronized by all who are interested in cultural development.

Woman's Danger Periods Made Safe

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Here is proof:

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the Change of Life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold. I had creepy sensations and could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I had a tumor.

"I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it has worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish this letter."—Mrs. Nathan B. Gorton, 51 No. Main St., Natick, Mass.

ANOTHER SIMILAR CASE.

Cornwallville, N. Y.—"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for some time for Change of Life, nervousness, and a fibroid growth.

"Two doctors advised me to go to the hospital, but one day while I was away visiting, I met a woman who told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and I know it helped me wonderfully. I am very thankful that I was told to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. Boughton, Cornwallville, N. Y., Greene Co.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
